ABOUT

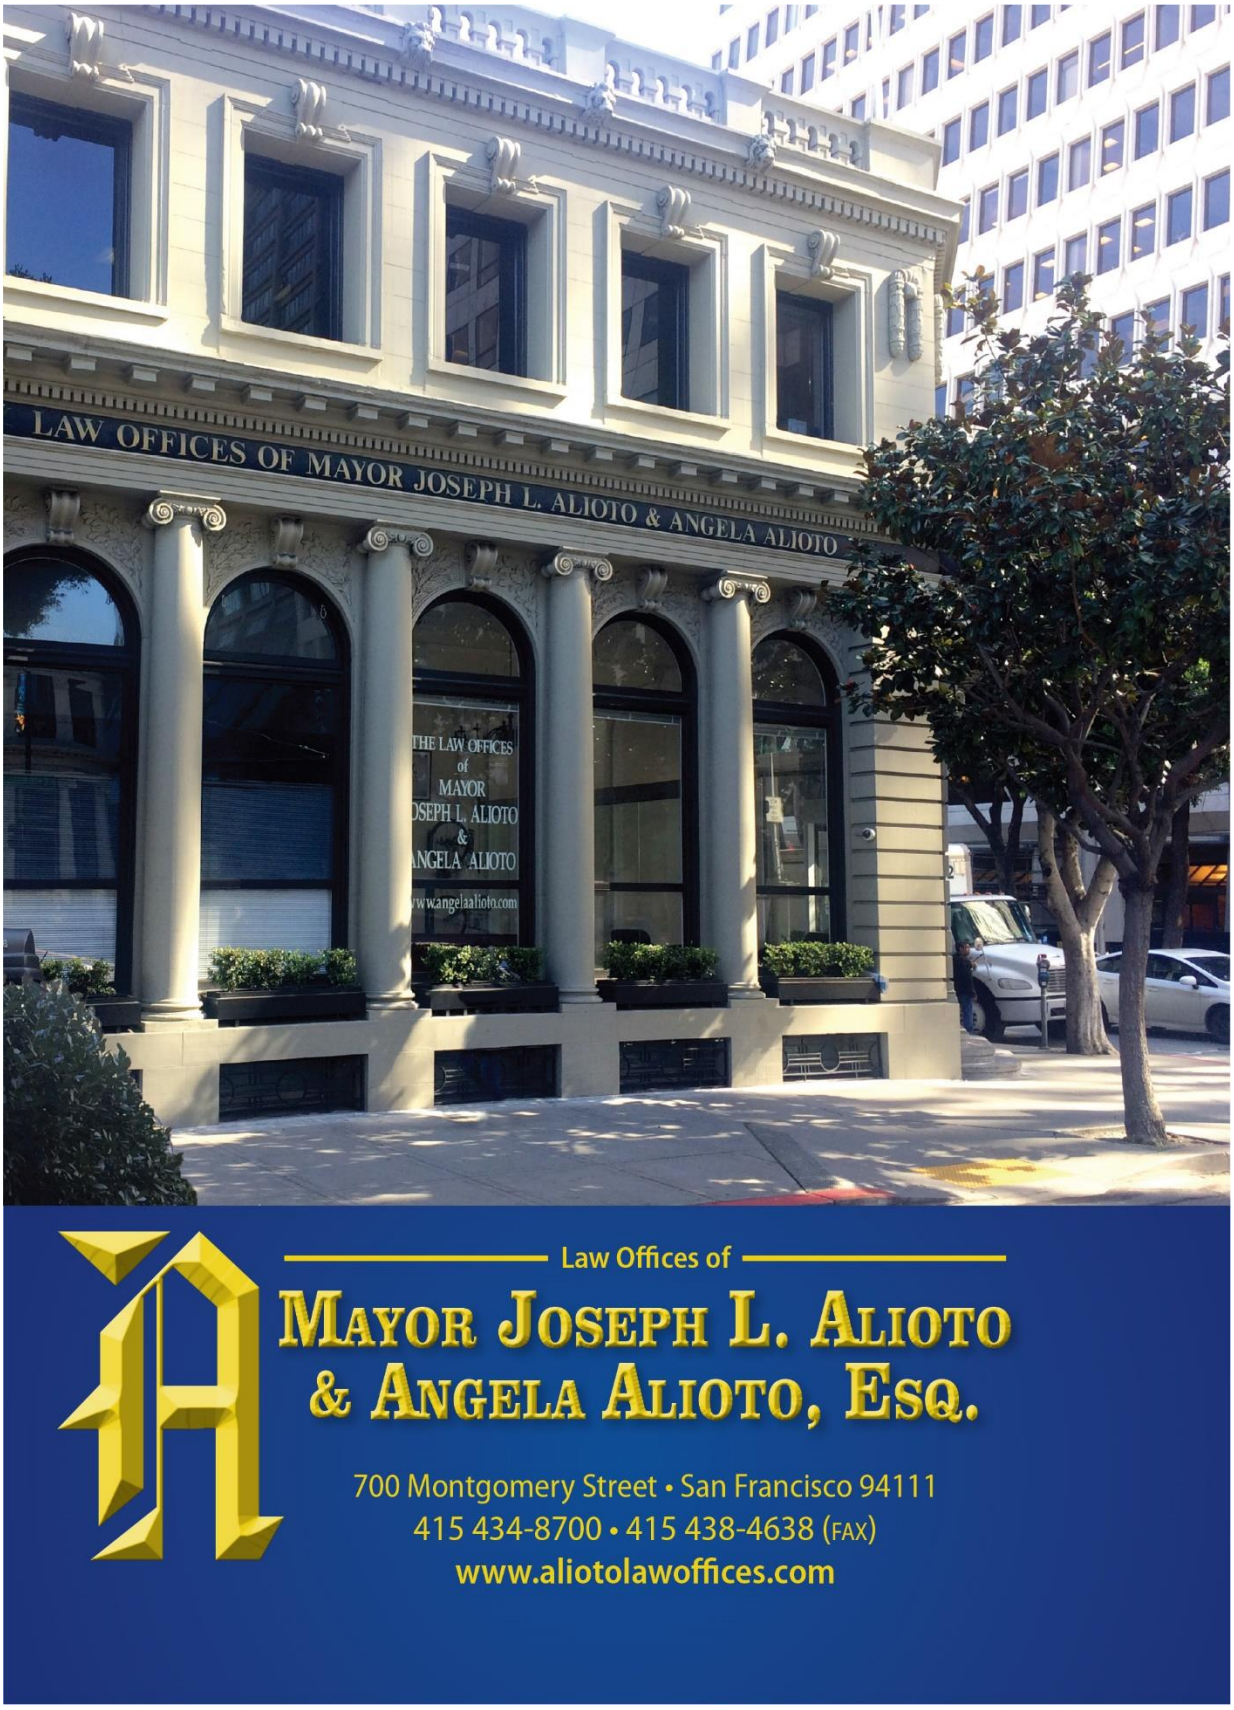

ANGELA ALIOTO

SFINCFF Legal Counsel

Angela Alioto was born and raised in San Francisco, the daughter of former Mayor Joseph L. Alioto and Angelina Genaro Alioto. She earned her law degree from the University of San Francisco School of Law in 1983. Elected to the San Francisco Board of Supervisors in 1988 and reelected in 1992, Angela became Board President in 1993. During her tenure, she championed landmark legislation, including the nation's first anti-smoking ordinance, expanded AIDS services, authored the city's needle exchange law, and created both the San Francisco Film Commission and the Youth Commission. She also advanced environmental protections, workers' rights, and efforts to municipalize the city's utilities.

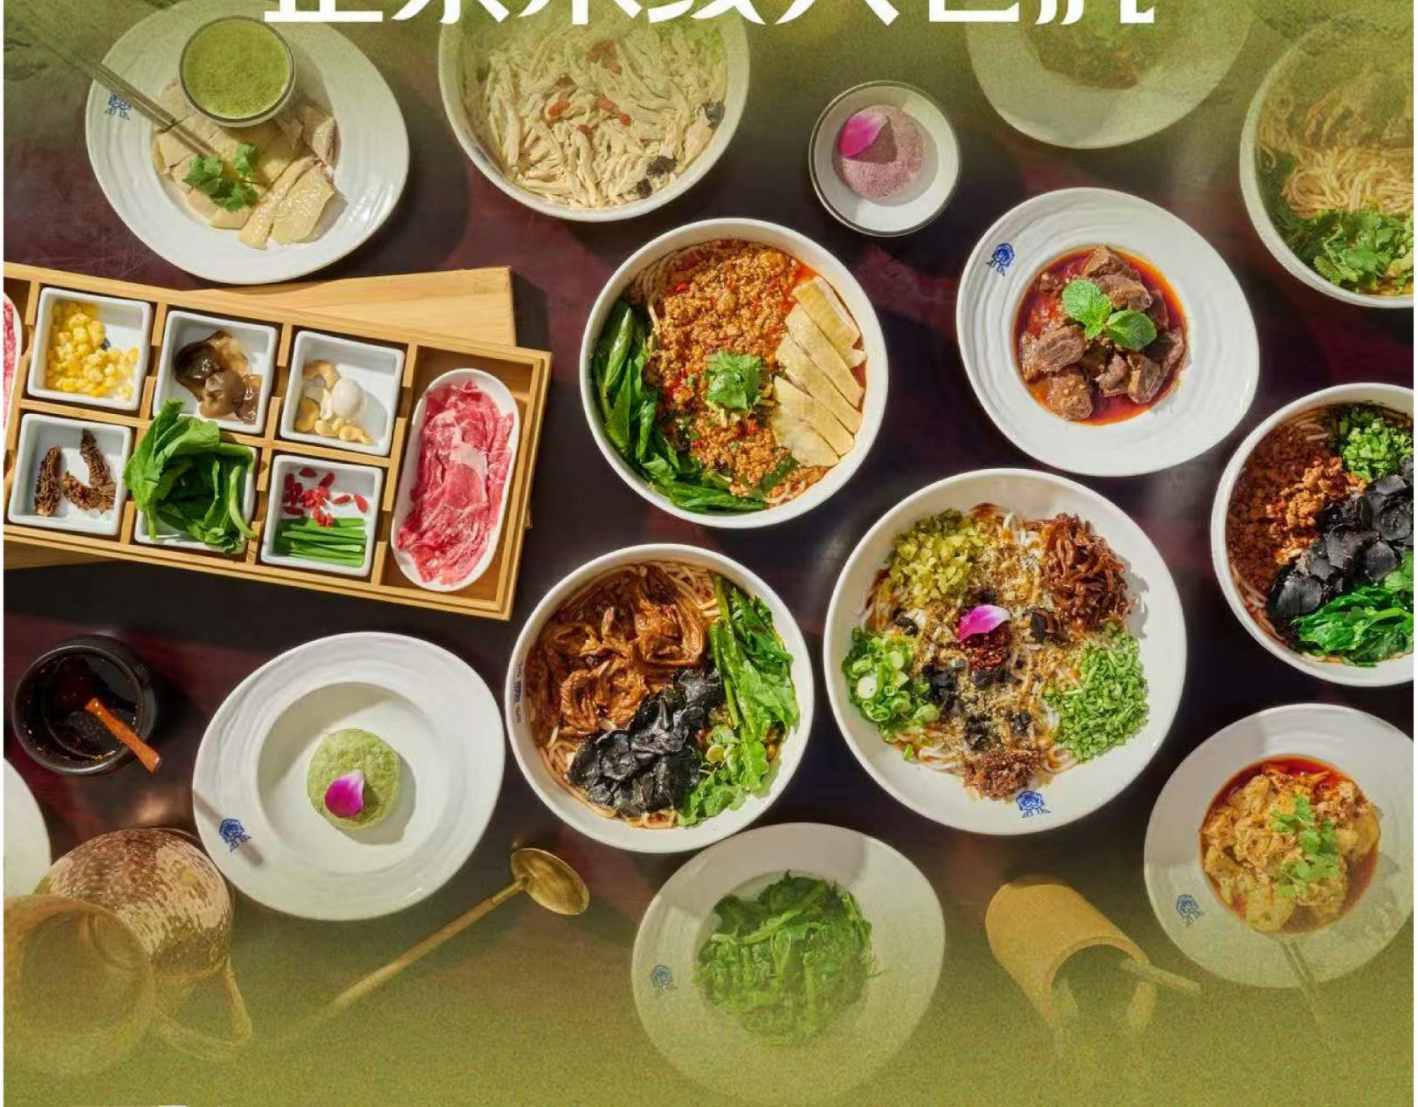

Angela has held numerous leadership roles in the Democratic Party, including Vice President, Co-Chair of the State Platform Committee and Co-Chair of California's 1992 National Convention Delegation. Deeply committed to social justice and faith-based service, she is the international Director of the Knights of Saint Francis of Assisi and led the Renaissance Project that created the Porziuncola Nuova at the National Shrine of Saint Francis—designated by Pope Benedict XVI as a holy place. Angela continues to advocate for homelessness solutions and civic engagement. She is also the proud owner of Kamilah the Miracle Filly, whom she deeply loves.
